

I am heartily objecting to your recent ruling. The Constitution made it explicit about free speech, and about the right to hear all points of view. Allowing the media to be tightly controlled by a few corporations flies in the face of that original concept. Please reverse your ruling. It sets back the entire concept of our democratic processes. Sonya Hamlin